

QUESTIONS:

Start by reading chapter 26 together.

1. What is the main idea of this passage?
2. What stands out to you from this passage and/or the sermon from Sunday?
3. Isaiah 26:3 promises 'perfect peace' to those whose minds are stayed on God. What does it look like for you to keep your mind 'stayed' on God during stressful times?
4. Can you share a testimony of God giving you peace in the midst of difficulty?
5. Read Isaiah 26:7-9: How does walking in God's ways, even through judgment, lead to peace?
6. Read Isaiah 26:13: It speaks of other lords that ruled over God's people. What are some 'masters' or 'lords' in our culture today that compete for your attention and trust?
 - a. How can we refocus our desires on God instead of on these other things
 - b. What practical steps can you take this week to place your trust back in God?
7. Read Isaiah 26:19: How does the promise of resurrection (both now in Christ and future hope) help you live with greater peace today?
 - a. How can this eternal perspective help you overcome fear, anxiety, or struggles with uncertainty?
8. What specific situations in your life are causing you to trust God more right now? How can we as a group support and pray for you?"
